

Our 2023 Board of Directors election will run from March 10th, 2023 until April 10th, 2023.

For 2023, we have six (6) Director positions open. We received seven (7) applications as listed below:

•Andre Myette: Originally from Antigonish, Nova Scotia, Andre has spent 16 years in the professional design field. He currently lives in Truro, Nova Scotia and has served as a Director on the Community Credit Union Board of Directors for 6 years. Andre is highly skilled with technology and comfortable with reading financial reports. He has completed multiple courses through CCU to provide full support to the Board when it comes to various areas of decision making. Andre is a former President, actor, volunteer and fundraiser with Hubtown Theatre Society where he has been involved since 2004.

•Charles F. Cox: Charles F. Cox was born and raised in Truro, Nova Scotia and has been practicing law for more than 42 years. Charles has held numerous executive positions and remains an active community member of Truro and the surrounding areas. Charles is a former chairperson of the Truro Audit Committee, Colchester East Hants Hospital Foundation, Director Nova Scotia Gaming Corporation and many more.

•Darren Schriver: Darren is a resident of Truro, Nova Scotia and has been a business owner of 4 franchises for over 20 years. The experiences gained as a business owner have made him comfortable with managing finances and bookkeeping. He has served on many Boards in the past and has been able to build his businesses on the knowledge gained by being so heavily involved in the community. Darren has recently received a commendation from the First Battalion Nova Scotia Highlanders congratulating him on his efforts to support Canadian soldiers in Afghanistan. Darren is the co-owner of Foodland in Milford, Stewiacke and Tatamagouche, as well as the Robins Donuts in Stewiacke.

•Jeff Yuill: Jeff has served on the Board of Community Credit Union for the past six (6) years and is returning for a 3rd term. Jeff has a life long involvement within the Co-Op sector and has gained over 40 years experience with business development, banking, risk and credit management. Having served a variety of businesses, Boards and Commissions, Jeff has strong working knowledge of the required interaction of legal council as well as audit obligations of the cooperative business model. Throughout his professional career, Jeff has been immersed in many networks of business and community interests and is very active in community and economic development projects.
